Dear Professor Moser,

Unfortunately your letter of 22nd April 92 arrived to Moscow only in the end of May when I went to Rio de Janeiro for UNCED. Therefore I have received it only now after my returning.

In the end of May the Organizing Committee of CHEMRAWN-VIII has verified the Conference Programme in accordance with answers that were received at that time and distributed it. I send it you by express mail.

I believe that we will be able to include your report in the Programme additionally. It seems me that the new technology paradigm with examples of bioprocessing would be appropriate topic for our Conference.

Your accommodation in Moscow will be paid by the Organizing Committee, but we don't have a
